

Step 1 – Identification and other information (continued)

Elections Canada

For more information, go to canada.ca/cra-elections-canada.

A) Do you have Canadian citizenship?

If yes, go to question B. If no, skip question B.

1 Yes 2 No

B) As a Canadian citizen, do you authorize the CRA to give your name, address, date of birth, and citizenship to Elections Canada to update the National Register of Electors or, if you are 14 to 17 years of age, the Register of Future Electors?

1 Yes 2 No

Your authorization is valid until you file your next tax return. Your information will only be used for purposes permitted under the Canada Elections Act, which include sharing lists of electors produced from the National Register of Electors with provincial and territorial electoral agencies, members of Parliament, registered and eligible political parties, and candidates at election time.

Your information in the Register of Future Electors will be included in the National Register of Electors once you turn 18 and your eligibility to vote is confirmed. Information from the Register of Future Electors can be shared only with provincial and territorial electoral agencies that are allowed to collect future elector information. In addition, Elections Canada can use information in the Register of Future Electors to provide youth with educational information about the electoral process.

Indian Act – Exempt income

Tick this box if you have income that is exempt under the Indian Act.

For more information about this type of income, go to canada.ca/taxes-indigenous-peoples.

If you ticked the box above, complete Form T90, Income Exempt from Tax under the Indian Act, so that the CRA can calculate your Canada workers benefit for the 2025 tax year, if applicable, and your family's provincial or territorial benefits. The information you provide on Form T90 will also be used to calculate your Canada training credit limit for the 2026 tax year.

Foreign property

Did you own or hold specified foreign property where the total cost amount of all such property, at any time in 2025, was more than CAN$100,000?

26600 1 Yes 2 No

If yes, complete Form T1135, Foreign Income Verification Statement. There are substantial penalties for not filing Form T1135 by the due date. For more information, see Form T1135.

Consent to share contact information – Organ and tissue donor registry

I authorize the CRA to provide my name and email address to Ontario Health so that Ontario Health (Trillium Gift of Life) may contact or send information to me by email about organ and tissue donation.

1 Yes 2 No

Note: You are not consenting to organ and tissue donation when you authorize the CRA to share your contact information with Ontario Health. Your authorization is only valid for the tax year for which you are filing this tax return. Your information will only be collected under the Ontario Gift of Life Act.

T1-2025

Capital Gains or Losses

Schedule 3

Protected B
when completed

Complete this schedule to calculate your taxable capital gains to report on line 12700 of your return. If you realized a capital gain on a disposition, you may be able to claim a capital gains deduction for a qualifying business transfer (line 25395) or capital gains deduction (line 25400).

Also complete this schedule if you disposed of property in 2025 that you are claiming the principal residence exemption for or disposed of a housing unit located in Canada (including a rental property) that you owned for less than 365 consecutive days.
See parts 1 and 2 for more information.

For more information about capital gains or losses, including business investment losses, go to canada.ca/taxes-capital-gains.
For definitions or help completing this schedule, see Chapter 2 of Guide T4037, Capital Gains.

How to complete this schedule

Complete Part 1 if both of the following apply:

- You disposed of a housing unit, or a right to acquire a housing unit, located in Canada (including a rental property) that was not considered inventory before the disposition
- The housing unit (or right to acquire a housing unit) was owned for less than 365 consecutive days before the disposition

Complete Part 2 if both of the following apply:

- You disposed of property in 2025 that is not considered a flipped property (see Part 1)
- You are claiming the property as your principal residence

Complete Part 3 to report the disposition of different types of property.

Complete Part 4 to calculate your total capital gains or losses.

Complete Part 5 to calculate your total taxable capital gains or net capital losses.

If you need more space, attach a separate sheet. Attach a copy of this schedule to your paper return.

Part 1 – Flipped property

A flipped property is a housing unit (including a rental property) located in Canada or a right to acquire a housing unit located in Canada that you owned or held for less than 365 consecutive days before its disposition (12-month holding period).

A property is not considered a flipped property if, before the disposition, it was considered to be inventory or was owned or held for 365 or more consecutive days, or if the disposition occurred due to, or in anticipation of, certain life events as listed at line 17906 on page 2.

If you disposed of a flipped property, the resulting gain on the disposition is taxable as business income and not as a capital gain. To report this transaction, complete Form T2125, Statement of Business or Professional Activities.

For more information about property flipping, go to canada.ca/cra-property-flipping.

Did you dispose of a housing unit, or a right to acquire a housing unit, located in Canada (including a rental property) that was not considered inventory and was owned for less than 365 consecutive days before the disposition?

17905 Yes No

If you ticked "no", the housing unit is not considered a flipped property. If the property is capital property (such as a cottage or rental property) and you held it for investment or personal use, any gain from the disposition of the property is taxable as a capital gain. Complete Part 3 on the next page to report the disposition.

If you ticked "yes", continue at line 17906 on the next page.

Was the disposition due to, or in anticipation of, any of the following life events? (Tick the boxes that apply, if any.)

- 17906
- 1 the death of the taxpayer or a related person
 - 2 a related person joining the taxpayer's household or the taxpayer joining a related person's household (for example, birth of a child, adoption, or care of an elderly parent)
 - 3 the breakdown of a marriage or common-law partnership where the taxpayer had been living separate and apart from their spouse or common-law partner for at least 90 days before the disposition
 - 4 a threat to the personal safety of the taxpayer or a related person (for example, domestic violence)
 - 5 a serious disability or illness of the taxpayer or a related person
 - 6 the eligible relocation of the taxpayer or their spouse or common-law partner where the taxpayer's new home is at least 40 kilometres closer to the new work location or school (generally, an eligible relocation allows the taxpayer to carry on business, be employed, or attend full-time post-secondary education)
 - 7 the involuntary termination of employment of the taxpayer or their spouse or common-law partner
 - 8 the insolvency of the taxpayer (for example, due to an accumulation of debt)
 - 9 the destruction or expropriation of the taxpayer's property (for example, when the property is destroyed due to natural or man-made disaster)

If any of the life events above apply to you, the housing unit is not considered a flipped property. The disposition of this property is included in income as a taxable capital gain. Complete Part 2 if you are claiming the principal residence exemption. If you are not claiming the principal residence exemption, complete Part 3 on the next page to report the disposition. For more information, go to canada.ca/real-estate-income.

If none of the life events above apply to you, the housing unit is considered a flipped property and the gain is taxable as business income. To report this transaction, complete Form T2125. For more information, go to canada.ca/taxes-business-income or see Guide T4002, Self-employed Business, Professional, Commission, Farming, and Fishing Income.

Part 2 – Principal residence

Complete Form T2091(IND), Designation of a Property as a Principal Residence by an Individual (Other than a Personal Trust), or Form T1255, Designation of a Property as a Principal Residence by the Legal Representative of a Deceased Individual, whichever applies, to designate a property as your principal residence.

A deemed disposition occurs when you are considered to have disposed of property even though you did not sell it. For example, a deemed disposition may occur when you change how you use your principal residence, such as when you change all or part of your principal residence to a rental or business operation, or change your rental or business operation to a principal residence. If this is the case, you may need to complete Form T2091(IND) or Form T1255, whichever applies. For more information, see Income Tax Folio S1-F3-C2, Principal Residence.

Tick the box that applies to your designation of the property described on Form T2091(IND) or Form T1255:

- 17900
- 1 I designate the property as my principal residence for all of the years that I owned it or for all of the years that I owned it except one year.
 - 2 I designate the property as my principal residence for some but not all of the years that I owned it.
 - 3 I designate the properties as my principal residences for some or all of the years that I owned them.

If either of the following conditions apply to you, see Income Tax Folio S1-F3-C2, Principal Residence:

- You were not a resident of Canada for the entire time you owned the designated property. Your period of non-residence may reduce or eliminate the amount of the principal residence exemption
- There is no gain because you have transferred a housing unit to your spouse or common-law partner, or to a spousal trust

Federal Foreign Tax Credits

Protected B when completed

Use this form to calculate the amount you can deduct from your federal tax for 2025. If this claim is for a year before 2025, go to canada.ca/cra-forms to get a previous version of this form.

You can claim this credit if you were resident in Canada at any time in the tax year and you had to include, on your Canadian return, income sourced from a country other than Canada for which you paid non-business or business taxes to that foreign country.

Send only one Form T2209 per tax year. If your total foreign taxes paid to all foreign countries was more than $200, calculate the total foreign taxes paid for each foreign country on a separate sheet and enter the total on this form.

For more information, see Income Tax Folio S5-F2-C1, Foreign Tax Credit.

(1) Non-business income tax paid to a foreign country

Total of non-business income or profits tax you paid to that country or to a political subdivision of that country for the year, minus any part of this tax that is deductible under subsection 20(11) or deducted under subsection 20(12) of the ITA. Non-business income tax paid to a foreign country does not include tax that can reasonably be attributed to an amount that:

- any other person or partnership has received, or is entitled to receive from the foreign country
- relates to taxable capital gains from that country, and you or your spouse or common-law partner claimed a capital gains deduction for that income
- was deductible as income exempt from tax under a tax treaty between Canada and that country
- was taxable in the foreign country because you were a citizen of that country, and relates to income from a source within Canada

Note

The CRA considers any amount of tax you paid to a foreign government in excess of the amount you had to pay according to a tax treaty as a voluntary contribution and does not qualify as foreign taxes paid.

(2) Net foreign non-business income

Net amount you calculate when the non-business income you earned in a foreign country is more than the non-business losses you incurred in that country. When you calculate the non-business income and losses, claim the allowable expenses and deductions relating to the foreign income or loss. Subtract all of the following from your foreign non-business income:

- your income from that foreign country for which you claimed a capital gains deduction
- your income that was, under a tax treaty between Canada and that country, deductible as exempt from tax in Canada or in that country
- your foreign resource and exploration and development expenses
- a deduction you claimed under subsections 20(11) or 20(12) and under subsection 4(3) of the ITA relating to the foreign income, including any deduction claimed for:
 - your foreign union dues
 - your contributions to a foreign pension plan or a social security arrangement
 - your foreign carrying charges

Do not reduce your foreign non-business income by any deduction you claimed for a dividend you received from a controlled foreign affiliate. If your net foreign non-business income is more than your net income, use your net income in the calculation.

For more information on deductions claimed under subsections 20(11) and 20(12) of the ITA, see Income Tax Folio S5-F2-C1, Foreign Tax Credit.

Note

Include only your foreign non-business income for the part of the year you were a resident of Canada.

(3) Net income

Amount from line 23600 of your return (or the amount you would have entered if the instructions said "if negative, show in brackets") plus the amount on line 68360 of Form T1206, Total split income, minus any:

- amount deductible as a Canadian Forces personnel and police deduction (line 24400 of your return)
- amount deductible as security options deductions (line 24900 of your return)
- amount deductible as an other payments deduction (line 25000 of your return)
- net capital losses of other years you claimed (line 25300 of your return)
- capital gains deduction for qualifying business transfer or qualifying cooperative conversion you claimed (line 25395 of your return)
- capital gains deduction you claimed (line 25400 of your return)
- amounts deductible as net employment income from a prescribed international organization, as foreign income exempt under a tax treaty, or as adult basic education tuition assistance (included on line 25600 of your return)

(4) Basic federal tax

Line 42900 of your return plus any:

- federal dividend tax credit (line 40425 of your return)
- federal surtax on income allocated to "Other (Outside Canada)" (line 10 of Part 2 of Form T2203 or 48% of the amount from line 42900 of your return)

minus any:

- refundable Quebec abatement (line 44000 of your return or line 15 of Part 2 of Form T2203)
- federal refundable First Nations abatement (line 44100 of your return)

Note

If you were a resident of Quebec, basic federal tax is the amount on line 42900 of your return plus any:

- federal dividend tax credit (line 40425 of your return)

minus any:

- refundable Quebec abatement (line 44000 of your return or line 15 of Part 2 of Form T2203)

(5) Business income tax paid to a foreign country

Total of business income or profits tax you paid to a country or a political subdivision of a country for the year. If you were a resident of Quebec, multiply this amount by 55%. It does not include any part of the business income tax that can be reasonably attributed to an amount that any other person or partnership has received or is entitled to receive from a country, or that was payable on income that was exempt from tax under a tax treaty between Canada and that country.

Note

The CRA considers any amount of tax you paid to a foreign government in excess of the amount you had to pay according to a tax treaty as a voluntary contribution and does not qualify as foreign taxes paid.

(6) Unused business foreign tax credits

Unused business foreign tax credits can be carried forward 10 years and carried back 3 years.

(7) Net foreign business income

Net amount by which the business income you earned in a foreign country is more than the business losses you incurred in that country. When you calculate the business income and losses, claim the allowable expenses and deductions relating to the foreign income or loss, including foreign resource and exploration and development expenses. Also reduce your foreign business income by any income from that country that was, under a tax treaty between Canada and that country, exempt from tax in Canada or in that country. If your net foreign business income is more than your net income, use your net income in the calculation.

Note

Include only the foreign business income for the part of the year you were a resident of Canada.

(8) Basic federal tax

Line 42900 of your return plus any federal dividend tax credit (line 40425 of your return).

Note

If you were a resident of Quebec, these instructions do not apply. Instead, follow the instructions for Quebec residents in note (4) above to calculate the "Basic federal tax" at line 5 of this form.

Federal Foreign Tax Credits

Use this form to calculate the amount you can deduct from your federal tax for 2025. If this claim is for a year before 2025, go to canada.ca/cra-forms to get a previous version of this form.

You can claim this credit if you were resident in Canada at any time in the tax year and you had to include, on your Canadian return, income sourced from a country other than Canada for which you paid non-business or business taxes to that foreign country.

Send only one Form T2209 per tax year. If your total foreign taxes paid to all foreign countries was more than $200, calculate the total foreign taxes paid for each foreign country on a separate sheet and enter the total on this form.
