Privacy statement

Personal information is collected for the purposes of the administration or enforcement of the Income Tax Act and related programs and activities including administering tax, benefits, audit, compliance, and collection. The information collected may be used or disclosed for purposes of other federal acts that provide for the imposition and collection of a tax or duty. It may also be disclosed to other federal, provincial, territorial, or foreign government institutions to the extent authorized by law. Failure to provide this information may result in interest payable, penalties, or other actions. Under the Privacy Act, individuals have a right of protection, access to and correction of their personal information, or to file a complaint with the Privacy Commissioner of Canada regarding the handling of their personal information. Refer to Personal Information Bank CRA PPU 047 and CRA PPU 211 on Info Source at canada.ca/cra-info-source.

It should be noted that our accounting work in the area of GST/HST and other commodity taxes is limited to that appropriate to compile the financial statements. Accordingly, we may not detect situations where you are incorrectly collecting GST/HST or incorrectly claiming input tax credits. As you are aware, failure to properly account for the GST/HST could result in you or your company becoming liable for tax, interest or penalties. These situations may also arise for provincial sales tax, custom duties, and excise taxes.
